Reeves Restaurant is now offering a home delivery or collection service due to the coronavirus outbreak.

Historically a fine dining restaurant will resume our normal business once the pandemic has subsided.

We hope you very much enjoy your meal and if so please tell your friends and family.

Chef/owner Justin Reeves will prepare every meal personally. He is in the high-risk group so has been in isolation for the last week and will be for the foreseeable future.

We will take every precaution to protect both you and us. Please help us maintain our hygiene and anti-viral measures by respecting the food collection instructions when picking up and paying for your food.
